

New International Faculty, Staff, and Administrator Orientation Information

New at MSU? Welcome to campus!

Whether you are coming from Cambodia or Canada, Africa, Asia, or Australia, the EU or South America or Scandinavia, we welcome you to the MSU community! The WorkLife Office can help you land in East Lansing.

We can help you find banking, real estate, utility companies, and commercial resources like local markets and restaurants that offer international foods. We can help you find faith communities and information on schools and sports to help you get settled smoothly. We connect you with information on childcare, eldercare, health, and wellbeing resources. Visit our website at worklife.msu.edu.

International Newcomer Mentoring Program

Open to faculty, staff, administrators, post-docs and scholars with an international background. The purpose is to connect and share experiences to help build community within the larger university. The goal is for the local volunteer family to assist the international newcomer and/or family settle into our community and for the international newcomer to share their culture with the local family.

Learn more at <https://worklife.msu.edu/international-newcomer-mentoring-program>.

International Networking Breakfast Webinar

October 26, 2020, the WorkLife Office is partnering with the Academic Advancement Network and Office of International Students and Scholars in an effort to connect internationally minded colleagues across campus. Join the international email listserv for details as they become available. Learn more at <https://worklife.msu.edu/events/international-networking-webinar>

International email listserv

We'd like to keep in touch with you and allow you the opportunity to get information pertinent to the international community. It is simple to join our International Listserv at MSU! To join, send an email to listserv@list.msu.edu and include the following command line in the body of the message (not the Subject):
SUBSCRIBE INTERNATIONAL.

International Campus and Community Resources

We've compiled resources and information from departments across campus as well as the resources within the WorkLife Office. Learn more at <https://worklife.msu.edu/relocation-community/international>