

Photo Contest

Fatherhood Forum

Do you love taking cool photos with your kids? Why not show them off? Submit a touching or heartfelt photo of you with your kids to the Fatherhood Forum Photo Contest for a chance to win a prize.

Any father (or fathering figure) in Michigan is eligible to enter. Winners will be determined based on the photo that best captures the theme of this year's Fatherhood Forum - Why Fathers Matter: Parenting for the Health of It!

The photos will be voted on by the participants at the Fatherhood Forum and the winner will be announced at the Forum on October 6, 2017. Those who submit photos are encouraged to attend the Forum.

Why Fathers Matter: Parenting for the Health of It!

3rd Annual Fatherhood Forum Conference

Friday, October 6, 2017

Michigan State University Union Building (49 Abbot Road, East Lansing, MI)

Submission information:

The submission must be a good quality photo in a JPEG format. Works may be enhanced using phone filters and apps.

Download your submission to the Photo Contest link on the Fatherhood Forum registration page: <https://worklife.msu.edu/fatherhood-forum-photo-contest>.

All submissions must be sent by 11:59pm on September 22, 2017.

By submitting photos to this contest, artists grant permission to reproduce their work for print and electronic media promotion during the conference and for future conferences or media use. Media Releases are required to be completed through the photo contest submission link.

There is no charge for entering the competition.

For more information or questions, call Ted Ransaw at (702) 578-6851.